NOTICE

It is notified for PG final semester students of 2018 batch that considering the deficits in learning in the final semester due to Covid 19 pandemic in spite of the best efforts of the University to continue the teaching-learning process by means of online arrangement the University has decided to extend teaching to the students even after the final semester examinations are over by October 12, 2020 with a view to compensating their deficits as far as practicable. Students are to intimate the respective Head/Coordinator of their disciplines, and also the Secretary, College Councils for coordination, regarding the courses for which they want further academic assistance.

The University will also provide the students with access to the University Library for enabling them to prepare for their career. Interested students are to contact the University Librarian in this regard.
