

Short CV of Dr. Tirthankar Ghosh

Tirthankar Ghosh (Ph. D.) teaches at the Department of History, Kazi Nazrul University (India) as an Assistant Professor since 2014. His areas of specialization are – social history of disaster, ecological and environmental history of India, economic history of India, social and political movements in colonial and postcolonial India. He has obtained Travel Grant in 2019 from the German Research Foundation to present research paper in the Joint Annual Conference of GAPS and IACPL held at the University of Bremen, Germany. He was awarded with the ICHG-HGRG Travel Bursary for presenting seminar paper at the 17th International Conference of Historical Geographers held at the University of Warsaw, Warsaw in 2018. He was awarded with the Charles Wallace India Trust research grant in 2017 to carry out research at the British Library, Welcome Collection, and Royal Maritime Museum (Greenwich) in the United Kingdom in 2017. He has worked on a Major Research Project entitled ‘New Social Movements, Media & Civil Society in Contemporary India: Paradigm Shift in Public Protest and Political Mobilization’ as a Co-project Director, funded by the Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi, India. So far, he has contributed articles and book-reviews in journals namely, Journal of the Asiatic Society, Studies in People’s History, Journal of History, Indian Historical Review, Contemporary South Asia, Environment and History, South Asia Research, Quarterly Review of Historical Studies, South Asian History and Culture, Journal of Gender Studies, Journal of the Itihas Academy, Exploring History, Crossroads: The Journal of Transdisciplinary Studies, Karatoya, Indian Historical Studies, Cafe Disensus etc. He has presented research paper at several national and international seminar and conferences in India.

Email: ghoshtirthankar39@gmail.com