Professor (Dr.) Santanu Kumar Ghosh
Department of Mathematics,
Kazi Nazrul University, Asansol-713340
West Bengal, India.
Tel:(91)9831069093; (91)7908982539
Email: santanu_96@yahoo.co.in santanukumar.ghosh@knu.ac.in

Education:

Professor Santanu Kumar Ghosh passed B.Sc. Honours in Mathematics from St. Xavier's College, Kolkata, then affiliated to the University of Calcutta in the year 1996. He passed M.Sc. in Applied Mathematics from University of Calcutta (University College of Science & Technology, Rajabazar, Kolkata) in the year 1998. He was awarded Ph.D. in Science from Jadavpur University, Kolkata in the year 2006. Dissertation title of the thesis was "Mathematical Modelling in Inventory Replenishment Policies: Some Problems". Professor Ghosh Qualified Joint CSIR-UGC NET, SLET and GATE Examinations.

Teaching & Research Experience:

Professor Ghosh has teaching experience of more than 18 years in UG & PG levels. He Joined Jadavpur University, Kolkata as Junior Research Fellow in the Department of Mathematics on January 2000. He was awarded Ph.D. in Science in the year 2006 from Jadavpur University, Department of Mathematics. His area of research work is Production planning and Inventory Management. Two students were awarded Ph.D. degree and presently six students are registered under his supervision. He has published many research papers in several International Journals of repute. He received Dewang Mehta National Education Award as Best Professor in Mathematics in two consecutive years 2017 and 2018.