Dear Sir or Madam,

On behalf of the Crossroads Asia Network, we herewith certify that Mr. Anindya Sekhar Purakayastha (born 01.01.1970, in Balurghat, West Bengal, India) has successfully taken part in the conference "Area Studies' Futures" of the Crossroads Asia competence network on September 22-23, 2016 in Bonn, at the Center for Development Research of the University of Bonn. In addition to presenting his research on „Trans-borderal Geo-studies and Post-Anthropocentrism“, Mr. Purakayastha has used the resources of the University of Bonn for his research and familiarized himself with the extended Crossroads Asia network from September 15 to September 24, 2016.

The Crossroads Asia competence network, funded by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBWF), was founded in 2011 with the aim of rethinking and repositioning area studies for a globalized world. For more information on the Crossroads Asia competence network, please visit our internet presence at www.crossroads-asia.de. The Crossroads Asia Coordination Office is based at the Center for Development Research (ZEF) of the University of Bonn. For more information on the Center for Development Research, please visit www.zef.de.

For any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me
We thank you for your cooperation.

Yours sincerely,

Claus Becht Hansen
