Dear Arindam Saha,

I would like to thank you for your paper presentation entitled “Enfolding the Urban Precariat and the Neo-Margins of India: New Media and the Politics of Under-representations” at our conference, “Sustaining Diverse and Inclusive Communities”, held at Queens College on November 13-14, 2017 thanks to the generous support of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. Your participation contributed to the success of our conference. We look forward to continuing collaboration with you and want to wish you every professional success in the future.

Sincerely,

Michael Wolfe
