

Certificate

This is to certify that

Anindya Sekhar Purkayastha

held a lecture at the Summer School

Social Protest and Social Movements in Historical and Contemporary Perspectives at the Ruhr-University Bochum, Germany from 19 to 23 September 2016 in the framework of the interdisciplinary programme inStudies.

The Summer School organised by the Institute for Social Movements of the Ruhr-University Bochum addressed basic theories and history of social movements as well as contemporary social movements from a sociological perspective while taking into consideration political and economic approaches.

We are very thankful that Anindya Sekhar Purkayastha held a very inspiring lecture about Occupying across the Borders: Prefigurative Dissidence and Recent Campus Agitations in India.

The framework of the Summer School was that the BA., MA. And PhD Students had the opportunity to learn more about the field of social movements from international and interdisciplinary perspectives and actively engaged in discussions on current positions of research and challenges of social movements with national and international scholars and activists.
